REFUSING TO CELEBRATE EVACUATION

DAY. A SPIRIT OF HOSTILITY TO ENGLAND-A TAILOR PUSHED TO THE WALL.

Max Linzpach, of Carpenters' Union, presided over the deliberations of the Central Labor Union at Odd Fellows Hall yesterday. The Committee on Organization reported that the Cigar-box Makers' Union and the the Newsdealers' Union had joined the Central! Labor Union. A resolution of sympathy with the employes of E. S. Higgins & Co., was passed and also a resolution censuring Police Justice Gardner for his hostility to laboring men, and requesting the Mayor not to reappoint him. A resolution requesting the different unions to take part in the Evacuation Day parade brought half a dozen men to their feet. "The English to-day have a greater hold in this country than they ever had before?" shouted one delegate. Another said: "There has been no evacuation. There is more land in the United States owned by the English to-day than there was one hundred years ago." The resolution was voted down. A charge was made that Mr. Schill, of the Piano Makers' Union, who ran for Alderman in the XVth Assembly District, had sold out to another candidate. The matter was laid over until next Sunday.

About 500 members of the Typographical Union took part yesterday in the nomination of officers at No. 98 Forsyth-st. The following were nominated: President, John R. O'Donnell; vice-president, Nesbert E. White; secretary, George A. McKay; treasurer, Edward J. Kain; trustees, Thomas F. Brosnan and John A. Ganong; delegates to the International Convention to be held in New Orleans on the first Monday in June, Charles A. Stiles, Charles G. MacDonald, John J. Roberts and Joseph Weldrick. The election will be held in the different offices on the first Wednesday in December. The officers of Typographical Union No. 6 assert that they have received an intimation that The Post will accede to the demands of the Union to-day if they are unable to get enough hands to get their paper out they have received an intimation that The Post will accede to the demands of the Union the neighborhood of the Battery.

A ROBBER CAUGHT IN A CAVE.

A ROBBER CAUGHT IN A CAVE.

The house of John S. Washburn, near Chappaqua, was entered about two weeks ago and robbed of three crocks of butter, one crock of lard and 400 eggs. Other farmers in the vicinity were also robbed, but no clew could be found to the thief. Last Saturday afternoon as Robert Ireland was out gunning, about two nailes west of Chappaqua on the estate of Fernando Wood, he saw the legs of a man sticking out of a cave. He compelled the man to come out of his hiding-place, which was a dark hole in the earth and rocks, and took him to Chappaqua where he was taken charge of by Constable Lawrence, on suspicion. The constable Lawrence, on suspicion. The constable took him before Justice Lane, who locked him up over night. Yesterday morning a crowd of about fifty persons demanded that he should confess to having perpetrated the recent robberies. They escorted him back to the cave and threatened to lynch him if he did not disclose the place where the goods were hidden. Fearing that he would be hanged if he refused, he pulled down a part of a stone wall and, digging a little, uncarthed a milk can, in which were some women's wearing apparel and some table and silver ware, napkins, etc. He was again threatened with violence if he did not disclose more and he went to another stone wall and brought out another milk can in which there were a quantity of drugs of various kinds. He pretended that he would produce other articles, and evidently trying to escape from the visilance committee gradually descended the mountain somewhat in advance of the others. When he was surrounded again, and a rope being shown him, he led the way to another hiding-place in which were the tools of a small-sized carpentershop. He was then taken back to Chappaqua and locked up to be conveyed to White Plains to-day to await the action of the Grand Jury. The robber gave his name as Joseph Phyle. He is a German, about fifty years old.

STAGNATION IN THE NAIL TRADE.

STAGNATION IN THE NAIL TRADE.

At the recent meeting of the Atlantic States Nail Association, as stated in The Tribune, there was considerable discussion of the resolution adopted by the Western Nail Association to close all the mills in its jurisdicticu for six weeks, beginning December 23. Opinion was diverse on the subject. One reason of this diversity was that another meeting will be held before the date when the Pittsburg resolution is tog into effect. The Eastern organization is more compact than that in the West, and can put its decisions more promptly in force, and for this reason it was felt that there was no necessity for haste. Another reason was that ern organization is more compact than that in the West, and can this takecisions more promptly in force, and for this reason it was felt that there was no necessity for haste. Another reason was that the real trouble in the nail trade affected the Western dealers and manufacturers more immediately than those of the East. "It isn't our 'funeral," said one dealer on Saturday, 'but it may be if things keep on through the winter as they have been going the past few months."

"It is over-production," said one of the Fuller Brothers, at No. 139 Greenwich-st. "Not present over-production," said another of the same firm, "but anticipated over-production. There is a demand now for all the nails that have been made up to this time. We can't fill all the orders that come to as with a promptness that is satisfactory to buyers. If they have to wait a day there is a howl. The complaint is general, I believe, that there is a place new for every nail that is made. But manufacturers have found by the experience of other years that when the mills runs steadily during the winter somebody has to sell nails in the spring at a great deal lower price than is either pleasant or profitable. If the stoppage of six weeks can be effected, it will remove all possibility of a glut in the spring market. But it is not likely that the resolution would be observed by all the manufacturers. Some of them would see a chance of profit in violating it. The papers have made some trouble by representing the stagnation as an actual and present fact. It is only something we look forward to with some dread."

"There is no stagnation in the trade," said a member of the firm who are the agents of the Fall River iron works, who was found in his office at No. 71 West-st. "A lot of Western nails were pushed on the market here. A flurry followed, but the effect could not be permanent, in my opinion. We bought nails to-day in order to accomdate our patrons. In fact, we cannot get nails as fast as they are ordered. How it will be later in the season I can't say.

"The little excitement in the nail trade does not affect us," said a junior member of the firm of Field & Sons at No. 78 Chambers-st. "We deal in tacks, the prices of which are fixed by a schedule every half year. The manufacture of tacks is in the hands of a close combination."

A COLORED YOUTH'S STORY OF A ROB-BERY.

Mrs. Amelia Earl, a widow, living in a suite of rooms on the top floor of No. 31 West Thirty-secondst., in the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday accused William Gill, age seventeen, colored, of No. 354 West Fifty-fourth-street of robbery. Mrs. Earl stated that she saw Gill in her room on Saturday evening packing up a number of her valuables. He struck her in the face and fled, but was arrested later. Some of Mrs. Earl's property was found in his possession. Gill said Barton Allen, a colored man, had taken him to the house on Thursday and locked him up in a closet until Saturday. He then told him to go up stairs and get a bundle which he would find there. He was following these instructions when Mrs. Earl appeared. Allen, who was also arrested, denied Gill's statement, but Mrs. Hattie W. Bliss, the lessee of the house, and Allen's employer, who had missed articles, found them in Allen's rooms to No. 142 West Thirty-third-st. Gill pleaded guilty and Allen not guilty, and both were held by Justice Duffy for trial.

FUNERAL OF DAVID VAN ARSDALE. FUNERAL OF DAVID VAN ARSDALE.

The funeral of David Van Arsdale, the veteran of 1812, was held yesterday afternoon at Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, in One-hundred-and-eighteenth-st., near Second-ave. The Rev. Thomas H. Birch, assisted by the Rev. W. C. Steele, conducted the services. General Dalley was one of the pallbearers. The coffin was draped with an American flag, which had been given to Mr. Van Arsdale by the members of the church. On the coffin plate was the inscription: "David Van Arsdale, Born September 1, 1796; died November 14, 1883." On the dead man's breast was pinned one of the Evacuation Day medallions. The church was crowded. After the services the body was taken to Cypress Hills Cemetery for burial.

CHISHOLM'S END DRAWING NEAR.

CHISHOLM'S END DRAWING NEAR.

John Chisholm yesterday paced up and down the east corridor of the jail in Newark, where he will be banged on Thursday for the murder of his young wife. He looked pale and thoughtful, but walked briskly for several hours. In the afternoon his counsel saw him, and at 5 o'clock his mother, sister, brother and other relatives had an affecting interview with him. He said he was ready to die, and yet he had some hope that the Court of Pardons anight save him from the gallows. He expressed a desire to see his two little girls, but his mother-indesire to see his two little girls, but his mother-inlaw, Mrs. Macomber, would not allow them to be

THE STEAMSHIP AMERIQUE OVERDUE.

The non-arrival of several of the transatlantic passenger steamships is accounted for by the fact that the weather has been boisterous on the ocean, particularly on the Newfoundland banks. There is felt, however, some apprehension regarding the French Line steamship Amerique, which should have arrived here as early as last Tuesday. Hope was expressed yesterday by those interested that the vessel would be heard from as having arrived at Halifax, as it is believed that she has met with some accident to her machinery. The National Line steamship Greece is also overdue from London. The Lydian Monarch arrived from London yesterday, having had a long and stormy voyage. On November 13, on the Banks, several heavy seas broke over her decks, and the rail and one of the boats on the starboard side were klemolished. THE STEAMSHIP AMERIQUE OVERDUE.

GYRALD MASSEY TOO ILL TO LECTURE,

The United States Liveeum Bureau announces that Gerald Massey will not be able to lecture this evening, owing to a bad cold, which makes it painful to use his voice. DECLINE OF A ONCE FASHIONABLE STRUET, Bond street, once exclusively the home of wealthy and aristocratic families, is now almost wholly oc-upied by stores and places of business. Only two or three private residences remain in the street.

A MEETING TO DISCUSS THE TARREY.
Henry Ward Beecher will preside over a mass meeting to be held under the auspices of the New-York Free Trade Club, in Cooper Institute, Thursday, November 22, and Henry Watterson and David A. Wells will make addresses.

Many of the down-town saloon keepers were on the watch yesterday, scratinizing all comers closely for fear of a raid by the police. The arrest of so many policy dealers during the week had the effect of making the violators of the Excise law uneasy.

HAYES HELD TO AWAIT NORTON'S INJURIUS.
Patrick Hayes, who shot George Norton on the Bowery, near Canni-st., on Saturday night, was arraigned before Justice White yesterday at the Tombs Police Court. John Marshall, steward of the steamship State of Nebraska, who was accidentally wounded by Hayes, refused to make a complaint against him. Hayes was held to await the result of Norton's injuries.

A BAPTIST FRUACHER RECEIVES A CALL.
The Rev. W. H. P. Faunce who filled the pulpit of the First Baptist Church, Thirty-ninth-st. and Fourth-ave., for several weeks last month, has been offered the pastorate of the First Baptist Church of Springfield, Mass. He is now in Springfield, and his friends in the city believe that he will accept this charge.

A STRAY PILOT-HOUSE IN EAST RIVER.

While the watchman on the sectional dock at Pier No. 49 East River was on duty early yesterday morning, he saw the roof of a pilot-house, on which were two lamps and a metal eagle, floating in the stream. He contrived to drag it on the dock, and there found a sign with the name "Jennie," in gilt letters, fastened to the roof.

THE PEOPLE'S BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Rev. Dr. D. B. Jutten, who recently withdrew from the West Sixteenth Street Baptist Church, has been preaching for several weeks at the People's Baptist Church in West Fifty-third-st., near Seventh-ave. He has been generally liked by the congregation, and it is understood that a call will be extended to time this week to succed the Rev. William H. Pendelton, who is about to go to San Francisco. Or. Jutten said yesterday that members of the church had urged him to come to them, and he would consider the call carefully if it were extended to him.

THE WORK OF ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL.

The twenty-lifth annual report of St. Luke's Hospital for the year ending on St. Luke's day, October 18, has been issued. The report of the treasurer, Gordon Norrie, shows receipts of $70,225 33 during the year, which includes last year's balance of $2,368 10 and $4,800 lent by the treasurer for deficiencies. The unexpended balance is $703 67. There were 165 patients in the hospital on October 18, 1882; 1,368 were admitted during the year; 629 were carred; 599 improved; 112 unimproved; 152 died, and 149 were remaining in the hospital at the end of the year.

rights to use said patents in all cities and towns east of the Rocky Mountains.

The Hallide is the only system which has been successfully worked upon after trailways in Chicago and San Francisco.

A fund of ONE RUNDRED THOUSAND D.H.LARS, amply secured, is pleagest to the Company to uphold its exclusive right to the system of street cable railways under the patents owned by it. These patents have been twice broadly sustained in the United States Circuit Court as commanding the cable system by decisions in contested cases, on both the law and equity side of the Court, and the company and its counsel have an undoubted confidence in their validity. The charter of the Company, which is organized under the laws of New York, confers all the powers and privileges of a Rail-road Rolling Stock and Construction Company, by which it can cable and equip existing street railroads as well as to build new lines, and the exclusive right to grant licenses under these patents.
